Data protection notice. The Sudanarchäologische Gesellschaft zu Berlin e. V. (address above, mail@sag-online.de) processes the details you provide in order to establish and administer your membership, in particular to collect fees, send you the MittSAG and invite you to the general meeting (Art. 6 (1) (b) GDPR). We also use your e-mail address to inform you about events and the society's work on the basis of our legitimate interest (Art. 6 (1) (f) GDPR); you may object to this at any time. Records required under German tax law are retained pursuant to Art. 6 (1) (c) GDPR. All details except the telephone number are required for membership. The data are accessible to the Board and are stored on our behalf by Proton AG in Switzerland, a country covered by an EU adequacy decision; our bank receives the details needed for payments, and the tax authorities receive data where required by law. When your membership ends, we delete your master data at the end of the following calendar year; fee and accounting records are kept for up to ten years (§ 147 German Fiscal Code). You have the right of access, rectification, erasure, restriction of processing, data portability and objection, and the right to lodge a complaint with the Berlin Commissioner for Data Protection and Freedom of Information.
